“ The Serenity Prayer

*God grant me the serenity
To accept the things I cannot change;
Courage to change the things I can;
And wisdom to know the difference.*

*Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace;
Taking, as He did, this sinful world
As it is, not as I would have it;
Trusting that He will make all things right
If I surrender to His Will;
So that I may be reasonably happy in this life
And supremely happy with Him
Forever and ever in the next.
Where I will see you again.
Amen My Precious Friend.
I miss you & I love you, Valerie

“ Oh no.. I wish I would have known sooner I would have been there today. I remember the first time I met you,that you were someone that I was always going to be friends with. When you turned 21 I gave you a gold and diamond ring because everybody should receive a piece of gold on their golden Birthday,and that was right after we met.
We started agate collecting together and sharing and comparing rocks was awesome. I was simply tickled when I moved down the block from you on Brookdale Dr. The time's and laughter we shared were so magical. Katie I don't even know what has happened to you and why you are gone but you my friend will be so terribly missed. You made the sun shine on a bad day,and brought a smile to everyone you came into contact with. You knew about Respect,Loyalty,Honor and Love. You my friend I will carry in my heart n miss forever! You will be forever young. Prayers to your Family at this time ,. Taffy Young-Packard

“ Oh Katie Sue, I have many fun memories of you from camping. "Tut, tut it looks like rain" you walking around our campsite with your umbrella saying that, going for walks around the island and you and I playing games when nobody else was around. And more recently when you and your Dad came here to help renovate our kitchen, Don was up in the attic and you went up to visit him! Surprise because we hadn't seen you for awhile. We'll always love you, Aunt Kathy & Uncle Donny

“ I am heartbroken over the sudden and tragic loss of Katie Sue. Our childhood summers together was a gift. The memories of frog jumping contests, playing at the lodge, tubing, and enjoying carefree summers growing up together will stay with me always. May it bring comfort to your family to know that Katie Sue will live on in the hearts of many. I regret not being able to attend Katie Sue's service. Please know that I am thinking of you and sending boundless love and prayer for your family.

“ O my sweet baby cousin. The memories of my childhood are so tightly linked with yours, there are very few memories I have without you. Every holiday, Sunday dinners at grandma and grandpas pool, the cabin, the island. Every major event in my life, you were there. I can't imagine one without you! From the very moment I met you, I loved you and knew you'd be amazing, fly high and show everyone up there how amazing we all knew you were! Not a day will go by that I won't think of you and I will make sure to share all our great memories with my boys so you can live on in our hearts. Rest in peace now Katie Sue, I love you!

“ I was so saddened to hear of Katie's passing. I haven't seen you guys in so long, but I've always talked about learning to fish from Scott and Steve on Briggs Lake and babysitting for Shelly, and how Scott's girls and my girls were each born within just months of each other. I will always remember Katie as the sweet little angel I snuggled at Grandma Mary's house. Love and peace to all of you!

“ Oh Katie..... You were the tomboy across the street, always up for an adventure down by the pond, a good climb in Ed's willow with Josh, or a bike ride to Norwood Park with Josh & Courtney. There was the spontaneous summer slip & slide, then mud pies in the aftermath. Catching and releasing toads and turtles (most of them), always smiling and reassuring "Cmon, it'll be fun!!" A little later it was that sweet trumpet we'd hear out your open window, and eventually the award winning Park Center Marching Band! Man we'll miss you..... Oh, Katie.....
