Molland, Katherine Lee "Kathie" Complete notice appeared Thursday. Funeral service Saturday 1:00 PM, with a gathering from 1:30-3 PM all at: Washburn-McReavy Strobeck Johnson Chapel 1400 Mainstreet, Hopkins 952 938-9020

“ Dear Joey (sons, friends and Katherine's extended family and friends):I'll never forget getting the news about Katherine. She was the "real deal" and although I only knew her as a fan of yours (Joey) and Badfinger, she (Katherine) ALWAYS answered all her emails and was totally cool with "average guy" Molland/BF fans like me, who's rocked for years to your music-such as I do almost daily here in San Diego, California (I finally moved back to my hometown). Hang in there Molland family and focus on the good memories. May God bless all of you, Joey. Your friend and a GREAT fan of yours for decades.Larry in San Diego, California(Friend of Cheryl's)

I never thought she would have time for all your many fans, but Kathie made time and showed love to everyone as I'm sure she did you and your sons. What an awesome woman you married Joey. Thinking of you and the boys here in Houston, Texas.

“ I have know of Kathy's passing for some time now. Sometimes it is hard to find the words to say. I have never met Kathy but she seem to write good things in Badfinger Boogie that will sure be missed. Kathy sent we a wonderful Email and Joey you signed it on your birthday one year. I still have it today. Joey you were blessed to have someone wonderful like Kathy was. I'm sure she will be missed by everyone she touched.

“ I just came across a posting about the passing of your wife/mother/friend. I went to see Badfinger play at the old auditorium in Saint Paul in about 1985 or 86. It was so great to hear the band live after only catching bits on classic radio over the years. A woman came up to me and asked me if I liked the band. I told her how cool it was to see them and that I liked their music but could never find any albums so wasn't entirely familiar with the catalog. She gave me a band t-shirt and told me she was married to Joey Molland. She said if I waited that Joey would sign it - so of course I waited! He came out and chatted with us for a bit and of course we were just tongue-tied. He signed my t-shirt and to this day I still have good thoughts about this lady and her rock-star husband who were so nice to us. I still have the t-shirt and the autograph is still there. She touched people you don't even know.

“ I am absolutely heartsick to hear this. I have fond memories of the time I worked for Joe and Kathie on the "No Matter What" fanzine, and the time that (Rob and I) got to visit them at their home in Minnesota. Kathie was a stunning beauty, and a wonderfully funny, warm, honest woman. I still vividly remember her showing me her collection of clothes from her time spent in London, and told some great stories from those days. God bless you, Kathie. Peace be with you, Joey. “ My mother was the coolest mom that boy could ever have. She let us do whatever we wanted and corrected us when we were wrong. This gave us the freedom to find out on are own. She had more willpowere than anyone i had ever met. I don't know how many times i have seen her stand her ground in a room where every one was against her and prove her point. She was blount and some times even offensive with her straight forward comments on what she believed in, right or wrong! She would not back down to anybody ever, it was amazing to see this through out my childhood. At times it was embbarising and i could not believe what she was doing, were my brother and I would hide before she could introduce us to another big intimidating crowd of well known people most of the time. She was so proud of us. She told me personally that she had lived a great life and was amazed that a little girl from hopkins would do the things that she had done. There is nothing like losing your mom, i miss her so much that i have to keep myself busy so i don't get stuck on realizing the fact that she is gone for my remanding years. She taught me so much, saved me so many times, believed in me always, and forgave me when i screwed up. I will forever be changed knowing that she is gone and will never forget what was there between her and I, love, unpparrelled in my life and unforgetable till the afterlife!

“ Dear Joey, Jo-Jo and Shaun, I was so very saddened to hear the sad news that Kathie had passed away, it has been a while since I have seen you, my love goes out to you all at this time. On Friday morning my mum who was also my dear friend passed away. A good friend sent me this prayer, and I send it to you. I said, "God, I hurt." And God said, I know. I said, "God, I cry a lot." And God said, "That is why I gave you tears." I said, "God, I am so depressed." And God said, "That is why I gave you Sunshine." I said, "God, life is so hard." And God said, "That is why I gave you loved ones." I said, "God, my loved one died." And God said, "So did mine." I said, "God, it is such a loss." And God said, I saw mine nailed to a cross." I said, "God, but your loved one lives." And God said, "So does yours." I said, "God, where are they now?" And God said, "Mine is on My right and yours is in the Light." I said, "God, it hurts." “ Dear Joe, Shaun and Mr. Molland, I was shocked to hear of Kathie's passing. I am so sorry for your loss - and what a huge loss it is. There will never be anyone quite like your mom - she was very special and I hope you take comfort in knowing how many people loved her and how much she loved all of you - she adored her boys. “ We are so saddened to hear the news, and even more so because we never had a chance to personally meet Kathie. We will also miss the "laugh of the day" e-mails she always sent out. I so enjoyed talking to her on the phone dozens of times the last 5 years. Her support of Joey's music, as well as defending the true legacy of Badfinger was inspiring. We wish her the peace she so deserves, in the better place where she has arrived. On behalf of my bandmates, we send love and prayers to Joey, Jojo and Shaun. I am so glad that I got to see her recently at Joey's gig at Famous Dave's. “ For Joe and sons, Kathy was my cousin. Like my sister Judy said, you were very proud to have her as our cousin. She was so beautiful, talented and fun. One of my memories of time spent with her was when my parents, Kathy's Auntie Kay and Uncle Don, took us on a trip to Florida. Kathy and I did not think we had gotten tan enough. We talked my mom into buying us a "sun lamp" so we could darken up. We both got so burnt we could hardly move! Then she decided to color her hair blond and it turned ORANGE! We were quite the site. I have so many great memories of growing up with you, Kathy, thank you. God bless your family in this time of sadness in the loss of your wife and mom. She will truly be missed by so many.

“ I first met Kathie when Badfinger was spotlighting their "Airwaves" album at the Roxy in Los Angeles in 1978. The room was packed, and we were looking around for empty seats when a soft lady's voice said: "This area is reserved but please sit with us". I thanked her, and she introduced herself as Kathie Molland. That was the beginning of a wonderful friendship that lasted until the receipt of that sad news yesterday. Kathie was such a good friend to me when the Mollands resided in Los Angeles, and remained so for almost the past 30 years. I know how dedicated she was to Joey and to keeping the Badfinger legacy alive. I will always treasure my visits and seeing her at those Badfinger shows. “ My most heartfelt condolences to Joey, Joe III (JoJo) and Shaun. I met Kathie for the first time in 1972, and consider it my great fortune to have been considered by her a trusted friend for all these years. She was passionate, artistic, witty, and not afraid to speak her mind. She was so very proud of her family, and I shall miss her very much.

“ No words can convey the magnitude of my sorrow at this time. Kathie was a wonderful woman and someone who I had the privilege of having some great conversations with. She was always such a strong and honest person, yet possessing of a kind and sensitive heart. One of kind she was, though I don't need to tell you that. Just know that my thoughts and prayers for you and the boys are ongoing. Don't ever doubt the special place in my heart that Kathie and you will always occupy. God bless, Robert Rodriguez

“ My heart dropped when I saw Kathie's notice in the paper today. She and I were friends in junior high school and had just recently reconnected through Facebook. She was always beautiful, both inside and out. I always admired her musical talent and remember turning the sheet music for her when she played the piano to accompany the choir. I don't think there was ever a time that she was at my house that she didn't sit down and play the piano. Even my mother, who was an excellent pianist herself, enjoyed listening to Kathie play. I last saw her at our 35th class reunion. From our conversation it was clear how much she loved and supported Joe and her boys. What lucky men they were. All of us have been lucky to have had her in our lives. Kathie and I were going to get together soon to catch up. I'm so sorry that won't happen. It is another life lesson - to not put things off.

“Joey, What can I say? Kathie and I go back to Shady Oak lake 1963, the local 60's music scene, with you two in LA, Hopkins and Shorewood. I always enjoyed her and you and I'm sorry I didn't stay more connected. Oh, how I wish I had. Her passing leaves me empty. I can't imagine your anguish. My prayers are with you and the boys.

“Joey, JoJo and Saun, you can see just by the amount of tributes how much Kathie was loved. Life will not be the same without her and our memories will always be here. She was a massive influence on me and my wife and we thought the world of her. All the best for the future and Kathie, rest in peace and hope you can feel the love from here. Missing you!
