“ We were roommates and friends. She asked if I wanted to play canasta and we had to use the encyclopedia to look up the rules! We would go dancing to let off steam and shared many a late night laugh and glass of wine. Her proudest achievement was her daughter Tina. Whenever she said her name that beaming smile appeared that could light up the moon.

I wanted Aunt Kathie and Uncle Rich to be my Godparents. Uncle passed but Aunt Kathie said yes, and Tina became my God sister .Our family always would go to their house in Coon Rapid by Mercy Hosp. and a big park. I was always impressed how Aunt Kathie was so beautiful and classy. I remember her putting make up on it was Revlon it was a powder that she wet and it was like foundation and powder in 1.. I swore I would grow up and wear that make up. I did. Aunt Kathie, Tina and I went to Canadian. She loved Tina more than anything in the world. They were attached at the hip and I can hear her say her nickname "Teen" She is one of the few who called me Melinda growing up and not Mindy. I know she is driving a convertible, dancing with Uncle Richard and smiling down.
