“ I was so sorry to hear of Kathi's death; I didn't know she was ill. Kathi took me under her wing and befriended me when I was a new employee of the Pioneer Press in 1985. Kathi not only helped me through my brother's death, but she held a shower for my son Sam in her home in Merriam Park in 1986. I've kept the card all these years because of what she wrote for him: "Samuel -- I wish you a wonderful life full of surprises and joy and love. I hope you will always find the world to be new and interesting and that you will take a path that will keep you happy always."Kathi Revbeck"I'd like to think Kathi wrote what she did for my son in 1986 because she believed and practiced these intellectual tenets in her own life. I was blessed to have become reacquainted with Kathi in Saint Paul after knowing her only as an older classmate in Le Sueur. Kathi's kindness will live forever whenever I tell my family about her grace and thoughtfulness.I am so sorry for your loss.Kathryn (Moser) Marron

“ Dear Dan - I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I will pray for you and the rest of the family. You are truly an example of everything a good, strong, husband should be, and I know you two enjoyed many happy days together - remember the sweet 16 roses you gave her! Take care of yourself! Miss you, friend!

“ I pray for serenity for Kathy's family and friends in the midst of this storm. Kathy was a joyful light in the American Cancer Society, and I was blessed to have worked with her as a fellow survivor and volunteer. I will remember Kathy for her warm smile, joyfulness and kind spirit. I will miss her.

“ Prayers go out to Kathi's family. The love and laughter, the joy in the togetherness we shared with Kathy will make us strong. We'll come to realize that our time together, no matter how long, was meant to be, and that we were blessed to have such a precious gift of love in our life. Keep your hearts beating with loving memories and trust in your faith to guide us all through. Know that life moves on...the beauty of love stays behind to surround and embrace us. Sue King
