“ I'm her "baby" sister and looked up to her a lot. She and our oldest sister, Camille, would babysit me and our brother Larry when they were in high school. I remember Kathy and Camille taking turns pulling us along snow covered sidewalks when we were little. When I grew up and married, Kathy and I would go jewelry shopping at the Mall of America and sometimes stay all day long until closing. I miss those times and think of them often. I pray Kathy, Camille and our mom are shopping together at Macy's in Heaven. I know someday, we will all be together. God Bless you Kathy. You are and always will be my big sister. I love you very much.

“ Kathy was a kind, gentle and loving woman of faith. She showed love to me and my family for the 30 or so years that I was blessed to know her. She is greatly missed even though she is happy in Jesus' arms. 😍
