

Kathleen Mary Ogrin

December 7, 1940 - October 7, 2023

Kathleen Mary (Foy) Ogrin, age 82 of Eden Prairie, MN, passed away peacefully on October 7, 2023. Kathy was born on December 7, 1940, to Katherine (McGrath) and Harold Foy. She was raised in Milwaukee, WI, and attended Divine Savior High School. Kathy graduated from Marquette University where she met her future husband, Ed Ogrin. Kathy and Ed wed in 1964 and were happily married for 59 years. Together they raised three children while living in WI, MN and Puerto Rico. Kathy was as generous and as patient as they come; which served her well in her roles as teacher, spiritual director and lifelong volunteer for her church. She was also a proud grandmother of seven grandchildren whom she never failed to remind that they are "much loved".

Kathy is remembered for her loving commitment to her family, friends and faith; her compassionate listening, her Irish "being" and her gentle spirit. Kathy was preceded in death by parents, Harold E. Foy and Katherine (McGrath) Foy, and brother, Garrett Foy. Kathy is survived by her stepmother, Rosemary (Schwinn) Foy; loving husband, Edward M. Ogrin Jr.; children, Mary Kate (Stephen) Engel, Patrick (Gina) Ogrin and Tim Ogrin; grandchildren, Patrick, Charlie, Jack, Kate, Megan, Margaret and Lindsay. Also survived by her siblings, Margaret (Robert) Murphy, Mary Phelps, John (Peggy) Foy and many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ My prayers go out to Ed and all of Kathy's family. I got to know Kathy in the early years of our annual Pax Christi Holiday Tea. She would plan and prepare to hostess a table and then promptly become a terrific helper in the kitchen in the days preceeding the Tea! Always smiling, always cheerful, always fun to be with. In recent years, I received the gift of her beautiful smile when she received Holy Communion in my line - and until very recently, I saw Kathy every week at our Zoom Yoga class. Again - always smiling and always bringing Joy to my day to see her there. I miss her and will remember her always.

“ I was surprised and saddened to hear Kathy passed over. She and I go way back at Pax as fellow Companion Ministers and more recently Chair Yoga. When Kathy talked, I listened! I'll miss her friendship, her beautiful smile, and her wisdom. - Tom Sampson

“ Words cannot express how I will miss Kathy. We've been friends for over 70 years and no matter how far apart we lived we were always connected. She was a truly good and caring person. I have way too many wonderful memories - and some very funny ones - to begin to list. I send my prayers to her family. I know Kath doesn't need them now.

“ Kathy was my special friend. We encouraged each other through many years of raising handicapped sons. It was wonderful to have a friend that truly understood. I know Kathy and Jim will be chatting about their families. Love to all the family. Judy Johannsen
