January 26, 1953 - February 21, 2025

Kathleen Harris Pomerence (Kathleen Rose Harris) Age 72, of Blaine, MN and Roanoke Rapids, NC, passed away on February 21, 2025. Kathy was born January 26, 1953, to a family of Southern Baptist sharecroppers in Seaboard, NC. She got her GED in Lawrenceville, VA, and worked as a seamstress, accountant, and social worker. Kathy loved to listen to music and enjoyed watching her siblings' bands play. She also line danced and taught in a studio with her sisters. When she wasn't at Bingo or the Casino, Kathy was fishing, traveling, sipping on daiquiris, and eating shrimp cocktail. She was always the life of the party. Kathy also enjoyed cozy family get-togethers with homemade lasagna and games, whether it be Donkey Kong, Mario, Cribbage, or Guts. She regularly hosted movie nights and series marathons. Her favorite show was Breaking Bad and she made sure everyone knew it. A cherished sister, wife, mother, and grandmother, she is preceded in death by her parents, Julian Harris and Lilian Harris; and her siblings Lena Casper, Jan Coggins, Elaine Stokes, Buck Harris, and Leila Patricia. Kathy leaves behind her husband, Rick Lee Pomerence; her children, Jeff Clary, Rick Lee Pomerence II, Kelli Pomerence Olheiser, and Theresa Vierrether; her grandchildren, Andrew Clary and Madison Clary; her sister, Phyllis Casper; and her beloved pets Grizzly Bear and Muffin. She will be missed deeply and remembered fondly.

She loved with hands both soft and strong,
A steady heart, a guiding song.
She nurtured us with warmth so true,
Yet stood her ground, she always knew.

A force of light, fierce and bold,
With fearless strength and a heart of gold.
Though gone from sight, she's always near,
Her love, her fire-we'll keep it

"Who are you talking to right now? Who is it you think you see? No, you clearly don't know who you're talking to, so let me clue you in. I am not in danger. I am the danger. A guy opens his door and gets shot and you think that of me? No. I am the one who knocks."

- Walter White, Breaking Bad
