“Dr Student and family, we are deeply saddened by the death of Kay. You were our neighbors for years and our eye doctor and my parents good friend. She was such a beautiful lady. She had such grace about her. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers

“I'm so sorry to read of your loss. While there is nothing that can take the sting of death away, may you find comfort in God's promise to one day, "swallow up death forever" as stated at Isaiah chapter twenty-five verse eight and to "wipe away the tears from all faces," according to Revelation chapter twenty-one verse four. And even more comforting to know, God will have "all those in the memorial tombs come out" free of sickness, old age and pain. Read John chapter five verses twenty-eight and twenty-nine. May these scriptures help you cope until that time comes.

“ To the Furlong family, I extend my condolence. If you can imagine the time when Kathleen will be resurrected back to life on earth where there will be no more old age, sickness or having to worry about dying again, then you have a glimpse of what life will be like under God's Kingdom that we pray for when saying the "Lord's Prayer." To verify this promise in your Bible, read Isaiah twenty-six nineteen, Job thirty-three twenty-five, Isaiah thirty-three twenty-four, Isaiah twenty-five eight and Matthew six ten. We can put our faith and confidence in these promises because we know God does not lie as stated at Numbers twenty-three nineteen.
