“ I grew up with Kaylah. She was my first and closest friend and was always looking after me. I will always remember Kaylah for her warm smile and kind heart. Kaylah and I would spend so much time together. If we had to be an art we would miss each other so much. Having Kaylah to grow and learn from is a top tier highlight in my life. I can remember having the best venting conversations and still had them as adults. That literally eased the mind. Words can not describe how much I love you Kaylah. I miss you everyday. Rest easy sissy you did so good! 😊
