When remembering Keith it is nice to recall fond memories and words of affirmation for him, verbally. As a family, we remind people to speak as loudly as possible when doing so, as Keith had notoriously bad hearing. Washburn-McReavy.com Coon Rapids Chapel 763-767-1000

“ I remember Keith always had a love of life and a smile on his face. He was fearless. I learned a lot from him including facing your fears knowing you can accept the downside. I never heard him say a bad thing about anyone. Rocky, as we called him, had a positive attitude as quarterback in high school and lead us to believe we could always win. He will truly be missed.
