

Kelly Schmidt

November 9, 2008

Schmidt, Kelly Jo May 8, 1969 - Nov. 5, 2008 Went home to dance with the Lord Jesus in her field of sunflowers. Beloved wife of Mark; daughter of Dave and Judy Winans; and sister of KimMarie and R.T. Pranschke. Kelly's body suffered from cystic fibrosis, asthma and diabetes, yet her famous quote was, "It may have my body but it will never have my spirit!" Her goal in life was to serve God, her husband and others as best she could. Kelly attended and graduated from Park Center Senior High, also a graduate of the Human Services Program at Anoka Vocational College. She had a zest for life and a passion for Jesus and prison ministry. She loved to dance, write, preach, plan gatherings, Bible study, recovery activities and laugh. Friends and sponsees were an important part of Kelly's life and we thank you all for your support. Her devoted husband, Mark was her main priority along with her 20 years of sobriety. Kelly's goal was to live with Mark and share a full and happy life with one another. Her life was characterized by unconditional love and compassion, Christian values, wisdom, respect, a youthful spirit and charismatic charm. A celebration of her life will be at 12:00 noon on Saturday, Nov. 15, 2008 at Bethel Lutheran Church, 4120 17th Ave. S., Mpls. Visitation 1 hour prior to service. A luncheon to honor her life will follow. Washburn-McReavy Northeast Chapel 612-781-6828
