“ My thoughts are with the Daniels Family today.

Ken and I shared the same birthday and we always seemed to find that common place from which to greet each other and understand where we're coming from. If you had provided him some fodder for personal chiding, you were fair game - good or bad! But it ALWAYS ended with good humor and he really did want to know how you are doing. I have good memories of Ken and on this most difficult of days to acknowledge such a person and his full life, that's what we rely on. Tim, Pat, Mark, Jim, Lisa, Jill, Micki and Katie - and all of your families - my condolences.
