“ Dad, I remember the times of snow plowing you driving the red and white dump truck and me and Tom riding along and we run the plow lever up-and-down. Taking Mom Christmas tree shopping it took all day for her to find the right one 😊. Planting garden, learning to drive to trucks, and many more.

The lord came and wrapped his arms around you and took you up to heaven he said no more pain you suffer long enough now it's time to take you home my son to be an angel for me. I know when I have a difficult day I can sit and think of you and what you would say to me and then what I would do. You were loving and caring and taught us many things. For that we are a blessed family. We love you and miss you and we'll see you again. 🙏❤️ Lori
