“ Colleen and family, I take some comfort from being able to visit with Julie over these past days. I am so terribly sorry when I learned of Kenny's death and at the same time a bit comforted by the fact that he is no longer in pain. He had a difficult life there is no doubt about that and yet he created a loving family. If Claire were still at home with me, he would have wanted to be there sharing in your grief. Unfortunately, I don't plan to tell him, because he probably wouldn't understand or he could become upset and I wouldn't want that to happen. I do know he would feel your loss if he could. There were many memories during their growing up years. I am holding all of you in my thoughts and prayers that you will receive the strength you need to get through this and that in time you all will remember the good times and the memories you made together.
