“ Kenny was a very kind and likeable man who always was so enjoyable to see & visited with. He was a man of kind words. He will truly be missed. Kenny S. & my Kenny were known as the "Bookends" when we, Nancy, myself & the 2 Kenny's were out together. We, the 2 women sat between the 2 men. LOL. Our most deepest sympathy. Love, hugs & prayers. “ Kenny had a heart of gold, he was honest kindhearted, stubborn but never let a friend or family down. His selfless loyalty to all he learned from his father Ralph. Who also taught him to never leave anyone behind. He gave me Nick so he's remained always in my heart and his son Nick had the best father so did Aly Kenny's daughter. Everyone that knew him liked him everyone that knew him respected him. The world lost a really really good man. but Ralph is with his son now and he's no longer in pain. may his memories never be forgotten
