“ Years ago I bought Ken's original oil 'Sunfish Bay', whenever I look at I feel calm, peaceful and less stressed, I love it and am so grateful that I have it. Ken had the ability to paint a scene that when you looked at the painting it would draw you in as if you were just standing there. When I look at Sunfish Bay, I feel like I am walking down the old wooden boat ramp to join a group of friends fishing. Minnesota has lost a great talent, he was our own Norman Rockwell and will be recognized as such more and more as years go by..I am saddened by all of our loss and especially for you Dianne, Ken was a really good guy!

“ Sorry for your loss, Ken was a very talented person. I have many of his prints. My late husband was Ken s cousin. I am sorry I missed the service. Did not find out about it and now it's over.

“ Ken was a talented artist. He painted our historical lifestyle. He took pleasure in his "craft" and explaining it's significance.

Our prayers are with you and your family.
