

Kent W. Conway

December 4, 1927 - January 5, 2024

Conway, Kent age 96 of Bloomington, died peacefully January 5th, 2024 at Walker Methodist Care Suites in Edina. Born in Montesano, Washington December 4th, 1927 to loving parents Lawrence and Gertrude Conway. After graduating from High School in Kansas City Kent spent 2 years in the Service before attending the University of Denver where he graduated with a degree in Civil Engineering. He married his beloved wife, Lois Borgh, in 1952 and they had 3 kids (Julie, Jim and Janie) and eventually settled in Bloomington in 1957. Kent worked as a Civil Engineer at Mark Hurd Aerial Surveys for 24 years before retiring and moving on to something he loved, building decks or other small construction projects for many people in the neighborhood. He loved hiking and skiing in the mountains and many special family vacations were taken to Colorado, Wyoming and Montana. In later years Kent and Lois spent many wonderful years camping in several states out west. He will be dearly missed by his daughters Julie Anderson (Rolf), Janie Sikkink (Wayne), son Jim (Laura); grandkids Matt, Peter (Courtney), Brittani, Kristine, Michael; step-grandkids Beckie (Dave), Jill (Travis); great grandkids Calvin, Kayli, Lucy, Jacob, Jonny. Memorial Service Monday, January 29th, 2024, 11:00 AM at St. Stephen Lutheran, 8400 France Avenue South. Visitation 1 hour prior. Memorials preferred to St. Stephen Lutheran.
