

Kesri Saran Jain

March 6, 1936 - October 15, 2019

Jain, Kesri Saran, age 83, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family on Tuesday, October 15, 2019, at St. John's Hospital in St. Paul. Kesri is survived by his wife, Krishna Jain; his children, Sangeeta Jain (Rajiv Garg) and Rajiv Jain (Shalini Yadav); and his six grandchildren, Priya, Sonali, Sonya, Nikhil, Neel, and Meera.

Kesri was born March 6, 1936, in Mathura, India to parents Raghubir and Sarla Jain. He has two master's degrees in civil engineering and was multilingual. He married Krishna Jain in 1962 and they had two wonderful children. Kesri came to America alone when he was 27 years old and built a real estate empire based upon his patience and hard work. Despite his incredible accomplishments, he always remained humble and maintained a simple lifestyle. After his mother passed away, he brought his father to America and cared for him until he passed. Kesri enjoyed traveling the world with his children and grandchildren. He had a thirst for knowledge and was a passionate reader.

Kesri believed in treating everyone with respect and dignity. He was the kindest and gentlest of all souls. Kesri enhanced the lives of all that he touched. He was a gift to his family and our community. He spent his work-life building the infrastructure for our wonderful state. Kesri was a role model who made a positive difference in the world by his actions. We will miss his warmth and laughter that enveloped all our lives.

“ My grandfather was one of the greatest people that ever lived. He was kind, warm-hearted, and constantly put others before himself. I will always remember him and how he gave back to the community. I am glad he was apart of my life. I will never forget you Dada. I could go on and on about this but. I would end up starting to cry. thank you for everything you did. Rest in Peace!

I too only have fond memories of Uncle. He was so kind and was one heck of a card player. I deeply enjoyed our card parties and time spent with him. He will be deeply missed.

“ My grandfather was an extraordinary man. We can all learn from his kindness, incredible work ethic and passion for life. He had endless love for his family and his grandchildren in particular. He was a generous, selfless and loving grandfather and I am lucky to have shared such a close bond with him. Very few people have had such a privilege. I will always cherish the wonderful memories of our time together. The world lost a truly unique man but I hope he is in a better place spreading his infectious joy and laughter. He will be missed and never forgotten.
