“ Tim and I are still in shock over Kevin's all-too-soon passing. His smile, his great laugh and his ability to find fun in everything are memories we will cherish always. He will live on forever in those memories.

“ Kevin was a breath of fresh air...always made me laugh. Twice a year, I ordered collaterals from Omega Lithograph, while Kevin and I caught up on life. I loved hearing his stories about his cabin, dogs, wife and sons. Kevin loved life and it showed. Thinking of his family and Omega family at this time.

“ Kevin was a man who loved his family deeply and was the glue holding everything together and for that I am proud to have called him my uncle. I will never forget all the hunting and fishing trips we went on and look forward to future trips with Chase and Dustin to keep family traditions alive.

“ Many happy memories from all the grouse hunting trips with Kevin, his golden retrievers, and dad around Backus. The pheasant trip to Iowa, and fishing on Leech. He was always alot of fun to be around. I learned alot from him and will miss him.

“ Most memorable was Kevin's laugh - it was infectious! Makes us smile just thinking about it. So many memories from our years together at Osakis - watching Chase & Dustin grow up, teaching them to waterski; snowmobiling weekends; neighborhood parties; laughs around the campfires; it goes on and on. We were so sad when you moved to Leech. But one of us has great memories of Eelpout - or better known as "the endurance weekend". We are so thankful for our weekend together in August. To know Kevin was to love him. He will be in our hearts forever.

“ I have known and loved Kevin for decades. He was a wonderful friend, family man, and "community servant!" I will take lessons I learned from Kevin and strive to "live life to the fullest!" He will live in my heart always!

Kevin was a great neighbor. It was always fun to see him riding into Pine Point Circle on his motorcycle. You knew he had a great ride and was heading to his place of fun and relaxation. Work hard, play hard Kevin would find fun in the neighborhood. We will remember him fondly.
