“ Kevin has been a backbone of the family, organizing family Christmas parties (and doing most of the cooking, and summer cousin weekends. He was always willing to jump in and do what needed to be done even if it meant sitting around in a hospital waiting room while I had a biopsy done so he could drive me home to West Saint Paul before returning home on the opposite side of the city. He was the voice on the other end of the phone line when I needed a friend. He offered to drive me up to the cabin when I was going through chemo so that I wouldn't get over tired.

Kevin was also always willing to lend his expertise in photography and took many pictures of my family. I'm going to miss you cousin! Say hello to everyone on the other side. I know they will be glad to see you!
