May 31, 2017

Stramer, Kevin Robert On August 22, 1957, Kevin Robert Stramer was born to Neil Stramer and Theresa (Landsberg-er) Stramer. He was the seventh child of nine to be raised and educated in Hazelton, ND, graduating from high school in 1975. Kevin leaves behind, husband, Jerry Dalgle, his mother Theresa, 92, and living in Bismarck, ND;. his father, Neil, passed away March 14,1961; Kevin's siblings include: Paul (Gladys) in Montana; Dave (Pam) and Warren (Julla) in Hazelton, ND; Colleen in Bismarck, ND; Sher, Laura (Nick), Ellen, and Julie in Minneapolis. Studying architectural design. Kevin attended NDSCS in Wahpeton before moving to Minneapolis in 1979. In more recent years, he studied graphic design at MCTC in Minneapolis, graduating with a degree and subsequently putting his creative skills to work as a graphic designer for Target Corporation. Over the years. Kevin worked for several companies, including Control Data, Kinko's, and, most notably, Target Corporation. Kevin & Jerry met in 2009 and were married on 2/15/14. They shared a beautiful home on West Lake Street, which is where Kevin passed away on May 31,2017, after several years' fighting the many battles of cancer. In personality, Kevin was full of wry humor. He liked funny people and they liked him. Everyone who knew Kevin liked and trusted him-for his work ethic, his decency to fellow humans, his good taste, and his diverse creative talents. In personal style Kevin was impeccable: always groomed and dressed in confident understatement. He was deliberate and dignified. In addition to his great love of music, Kevin was interested in the arts-namely, architecture, cinema, photography, and all the facets of design. He liked the idea of creating useful things. He also enjoyed biking w/friends on the many beautiful bike trails in the Minneapolis area. In lieu of flowers, Kevin & Jerry request memorials be given to: Willa & Charlie Rieland College Fund c/o Washburn McReavy Funeral Home 2301 Dupont Ave. S. Mpls, MN 55405.
