“ I first had the privilege of getting to know Kevin 27 years ago when he showed confidence in me by hiring me. Kevin was a warm and generous person and we quickly became friends, co-workers and colleagues. Our friendship spanned the 27 years as we both moved on to different firms. We often got together to share challenges and joys of family and work. Kevin was a significant contributor in my life and will be greatly missed.

“ I remember visiting my Aunt and Uncle and sleeping in a room upstairs to wake up to giggling and three boys stealing my and my sisters bras. My sisters and I were in our early teens and completely humiliated to have to yell down stairs that Kevin and his brothers had stolen our bras. I also remember that they could mess with each other but they had the reputation in the neighbor hood that anyone else better not mess with them and Kevin was the leader of the pack.

“ It is with a sad heart that I convey my condolences to Kevin's family and siblings. Having known these Tracey "kids" and watch them grow up to the adults they have become along with my children is a happy thing to see. When one passes away it is like losing one of your own family. I still miss your Mom and Dad (Lee and Pat), they were Elmer and my best friends through all these years.

*Rest in Peace, Kevin. You are missed.
