

Kim Winzeler Rue

July 24, 1954 - September 13, 2021

Rue, Kim W. Of Eden Prairie. Born on July 24, 1954, died peacefully on September 13, 2021, after a short illness. Preceded in death by parents Jeanne and William Winzeler. Survived by children Nicholas C. Rue and Abigail A. Rue, husband Peter J. Rue, brother Scott Winzeler. Kim was a student and graduate of Perrysburg, Ohio High School, Kenyon College, Indiana University (MBA), with studies at the Sorbonne. Kim loved Nick, Abby, Pete, Scott, father-in-law Joseph Rue, Ella (the dog), extended family members (Barbara and Russ, Scott and Debbie, Dave and Stacey, nephews Chris, Will and Mark) and in random order, Paris, Provence, Maine, the French language, good writing, books that helped her understand people and cultures, beautiful music, fine art, birds, her special projects (most recently making incredible paper flowers), cooking (she was an extraordinary chef, who would try anything and almost always succeed), fine cuisine, good wine and politics. Her family and friends will remember, treasure and miss her love, intelligence, wit, thoughtfulness and loyalty. And, she hated pictures of herself, so none here. No services.
