“ I do not remember my life much before 2011, since meeting Kimberly is when my life really started. My only regret is that we did not meet sooner in life, but we lived a lifetime of memories. I only recall two weekends since 2011 that we were away from one another; once when traveling for work and the second just this past weekend before Kim's memorial service. Friends would tease us since we were always seen together...."Wherever Dave is, there too is Kim." they would say. Wherever Dave is Now, I have no idea as I am lost. The only glimpse of hope is I do have our one baby that we managed to adopt, our 7 year old cockapoo dog Presley, who is now tasked as my guide dog to help me find my way going forward. I love you Kim, today tomorrow and always.

“ God called a beautiful soul to him and we are left with memories of a gentle, sweet, and genuinely caring person. She made everybody she talked to feel valued. What a gift she had for that. I was proud to call her my sister (which always made her giggle). David, you made her last 10 years so special in so many ways. She never had reason to doubt the great love you felt for her. You two were like a little salt and pepper set, always together, with such different personalities that were perfectly paired together, nonetheless. She left a void that is impossible to fill. We only knew her about a decade, but she left us with a lifetime of wonderful memories. I am here for you, Dave. ANYTHING you need, your big sis is here for you. I love you.

“ It's a terrible shock. Kim was wonderful and was taken far too soon. Dave we are so sorry, we won't make the funeral, we wish we could. It'll be a sad day - remember and be grateful for all the great time you had together.

“ Dave, Our sincere condolences to you and your family. I felt like I knew Kim because of your FB posts showing some of your adventures. You both look so happy in the pictures. It is an amazing thing to have had a partner like Kim. I feel your sadness and loss. I wish I could have come to celebrate her life with all of you. Cindy and I are talking about making the trip in the Spring. Lots of love to you. Sending you hugs to help you thru this difficult time. Your cousins Gail and Scott

“ Dear Mr. Stieper--I work at the Public Storage on Leibel Street and want you to know that all of us at the businesses along this road have been deeply shaken and impacted by this tragedy. During this difficult time, please know that many of us are keeping you and your family in our thoughts and prayers. Hugs to Presley! We were so worried about him. God bless.
