“ When I’m Gone
By Mrs. Lyman Hancock When I came to the end of my journey
And traveled my last weary mile Just forget if you can,
that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile Forget unkind words I have spoken Remember the good I have done Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I’ve had lots of fun Forget that I’ve stumbled and blundered And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles And won, on the close of the day Then forget to grieve for my going I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And
remember the place where I lay And come in the shade of the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best

“ It's been a year already but it seems like forever. You touched many lives Koreah and I know your spirit lives on. I find myself asking what Koreah would do or say to daily things in my life. I will hold on to the memories and cherish them. I remember the first summer we were together when we used to walk up to the corner store at 3am and go buy sherbert ice cream because it was so hot in the duplex we stayed in. Whenever I want to hear your voice I put in your cd and remember your passion for music and how music was a big part of your life. I remember the times in the studio listening to the same beat for hours drove me crazy but I still loved it. You were so talented in so many areas. I miss the fun times and you making me and Lailah laugh so hard I would be in tears. You are greatly missed Koreah and I will see you soon at heavens gates. We love and miss you "bigger than a heart"- Lailah

There isn't a day that goes by that I do not think of you or miss you. Losing someone so close to you is the hardest thing anyone has to go through. You were my best friend and I miss talking to you and laughing together. I miss everything about you. I will forever keep your memories alive and your pics on my wall. Lailah misses and loves you dearly. I don't know what I would do without her, she keeps me going. We are staying strong but we do have our times. Love u and miss u always baby.*
