“ Dear family, I have so many memories of the times when we were all younger and got together to play as cousins. Kristi and I at the folks cabin on the lake turning over Uncle Willard's fishing boat to see if we could walk on the bottom of the lake! Kristi, Carol and I dressing up in my dad's work clothes and playing together for hours. My love to each and all of you in this time of grieving Kristi's absence in your lives. Barbara

“ I have such good memories of our MUCH younger day when all the Paul cousins were together. Although our connections didn't stay close over the years, the bond of family has always been in my heart, and Kristi remains in my heart as a cherished cousin. My love and condolences to Tom (although we haven't met, you must be a wonderful person), and to Ken, Willard & Ruth. May God Bless you all and bring peace that only He can bring, into your lives. Take care, each one.

“ Whenever Kris and I shared time together, either on the phone or in person, we always laughed. Our laughter was infectious, causing each of us to laugh all the more.

She was a true, life long friend. We will miss her and her laughter.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to Tom and Kristi's family.
