“ Kurt was a good person who's time came too soon. And I don't just say this because he'd let me steal those darn skinny cow ice cream sandwiches from him. I say it because from an outsider looking in, his family always wanted to be around him. And I don't know about everyone else but on most days I can't get far enough away from my family. All kidding aside-the Kurt Baufield I got to know cared about people. He cared about his wife, his kids, his brothers and their families. There isn't anything he wouldn't have done-no matter how sick he felt-for any of his friends, family members and even their dogs for that matter. Its what made him a great person and its a trait we all should strive to achieve. You'll be missed.

“ Dear Shelli, Michael Jon, Lisa and Megan, I am filled w/ such sadness at the loss of Kurt...a charismatic man, handsome, the zest for life and a good time. I met him about 42 yrs ago..he was barely 13 yr. I remember so well the good conversations we would have at the house on Morgan Ave when he was falling in love w/ Shelli! I love you Kurt but never liked that you always moved away. Kurt will be deeply missed but never ever forgotten.I love that smile! Rest my friend.love, janice
