“ Just was informed of Kurt's passing. He was a great hunting buddy and soldier from our days at Sierra Army Depot. He did a fantastic job for me. I still have the old decoys that we used on Honey Lake for geese and ducks. Great times. I was his platoon leader. Miss those days. Best regards to his family.

Kurt was also my buddy from 980th MP COMPANY. John Wright was our Platoon LT. I was a spec 4. Kurt was promoted to Sgt E5. Sierra Army Depot was an isolated place but great for the outdoorsman like Kurt. Late RIP.

“ Kurt was a fine person. He was joyful, even while suffering, and willing to reach out to others to help in any way that he could. It seemed to me that he was very important in a lot of people's lives, and that speaks volumes about the caliber of man he was. My deepest condolences to his family. I will miss him.
