“ I remember Sunday afternoons at the Bryan home. After a wonderful dinner I was honored to sit in the living room with the family perusing the Sunday newspaper. They became family to me since mine was back in South Dakota. Then back to church for CAs and Sunday evening sing-alongs. Wonder if Lillian still had the plaque the CAs gave her in recognition of the awesome food she always was preparing and serving. She truly had a servant's heart. Thanks "mom" for the good times and good food.
