

Lance B. Burns

April 2, 2013

In loving memory of Lance Bradley Burns

Lance was born in New York City, the third child of James and Patricia (Phillips) Burns on August 30, 1959. He resided there until the family relocated to Minneapolis, MN in June 1972. He attended Bryant Junior High for 8th and 9th grade and graduated from Central High School in June 1977. Upon graduation, Lance enlisted in the United States Army and was on active duty from March 1978 - April 1981.

Upon leaving the military he worked several odd jobs including 11 years at the Minneapolis Athletic Club, Wells Fargo, Security at the Target Center, and worked part time at the Brave New Workshop in Downtown Minneapolis and The Valhalla Place in Woodbury, MN up until the time of his passing.

In his leisure, Lance could be found watching sports and cheering on his beloved New York Giants and Boston Celtics. He also enjoyed wrestling and eating Kentucky Fried Chicken which much to his despair, was recently closed down (sob, sob, sniff, sniff).

As Lance has made his transition from this earth on April 2, 2013, he leaves behind several people who will forever cherish his memory. His sister; Sharon Burns of South Carolina; Aunt Helen Phillips of South Carolina; Niece, Shalonda Burns; Nephews, Eric Burns and Isaiah Burns; Grand-Niece,

Patricia Burns; Sisters-in-law; Karen Burns and Kristin Burns of Minnesota;
Best friend and Brother, Tony Becker and host of other relatives and friends.

Lance joins in glory his parents, James and Patricia and his beloved brothers Dennis and Jimmy.

A memorial service will be held in his honor on Tuesday April 16th from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Brave New Workshop at 824 Hennepin Ave., Minneapolis, MN 55403 (Downtown). The family has asked that in lieu of flowers, a donation be made in his name at any Wells Fargo Bank branch. Please contact any member of his immediate family for instructions on how to make a donation.
Following this service, his remains will be brought to South Carolina for a private family memorial and committal to follow.
