“ I am sorry to hear of Lance's passing. I have lots of memories of him. Some good and some not so. He was someone I always admired with his sense of everything being logical. He always had interesting ideas and would always be able to project them to you in a way you could understand. (Some of it wasn't until years later.) One memory I have is of his hard work he always put in at the weight room. There are many more. He was truly a great person and always will be. ”
