“ Not very often do we come across someone in our lives that are almost totally compatible with ourselves, Larry was one like that to me , and to my family, never had a harsh word to say about anyone, always concerned for the feelings of others and always there to lend a helping hand to those in need. My son Henry was only a few years old when he would go hang out with him for a few hours , a day or two or even for a week end. He loved that and Henry did as well. They got to be the best of pals, and as time went on Larry showed him how to hunt, how to fish and just how to be a kind and considerate person. We will all miss him so much as time goes on . There will always be a vacant spot in our hearts for Larry and we will always cherish the many great adventures we enjoyed together. Im sure he is now in that Happy Hunting Ground amongst his many friends teaching them how to prepare some venison or wild game of some sort. Maybe he will be leading a group to Cabellas to buy a new rifle or see if he can find some lures that we dont already have. That was one of his favorite sayings to me, Im sure we can find a lure or two that you dont already have.

The best of everything to all of his family and friends , and Im sure they too will miss him as much as I .

Love

“ Larry was a great neighbor with a big heart. Ever since the day we moved in next door to him four years ago, he was always friendly to us and loved to chat. He was always offering to help me out when it came to lawn care, even when I insisted that he didn't have to! He let me borrow his mower on more than one occasion when ours was on the fritz. He even helped to let our puppy out when we were away. I miss seeing on his long walks and will always remember him fondly. Happy trails, my friend - we will remember you! You set the standard very high for what being a good neighbor is all about. My deepest sympathies to his family and friends.

“ Larry was a lifelong friend just known as Pete to a lot of us. Yes he would rather hunt or fish than eat. Maybe have a beer afterwards. When we we're young We lived together raced cars hunted fished had a beer or 2 etc! He was a wonderful strong person and will be missed by all. My condolences to family and close friends
