“ I could never put into words how much your friendship has meant to me. I feel very blessed that I could call you friend. Rest in peace my friend. May you walk the sunny beaches. This is not goodbye, but until we meet again. Alex and Will, my deepest condolences. Your Dad was so proud of you. Know he is always with you...

“ Rest in peace my great friend. Even though we were miles apart, our friendship was as strong as it ever was. And I will always have many, many memories of the good times, especially on and off the softball field. My heartfelt sympathy and support goes out to your family. Alex and Will; stay strong. Your Dad loved you more than you will ever know.
