“ Laura was more than just a facebook friend she was a soul sister. We sometimes went weeks without talking, busy with life around us but always resumed right where we left off.

We shared the grieving process, her for her son Josh and me, husband Herb. Her grieving process was especially hard as she was forced to delay it due to court proceedings... But she was always willing to help other mothers that had lost children, always ready to listen and offer support despite her own grief.

Im saddened her dream of retirement for her beloved Dan and of living in the house by the lake never came to fruition, but know she is with Josh and her parents that she missed so much and will be there to meet Dan and have retirement type years to enjoy with him there, on the lake she loved so much.

We spent many hours using spirit communication tools and im hoping that Laura? You will communicate with me during future sessions, so i might share them with ur family, and give them the peace we were finally able to find, just before your passing .. knowing our souls ARE eternal...and go on to live again outside of our human and sometimes weak and weary vessels.....till we meet again my friend. Much love and light.
