“ Miss Tyson was my eighth grade English teacher and newspaper advisor at Anthony Junior High in the early '80s. She was INCREDIBLE, a perfect role-model of a strong, fiery, capable, intelligent woman. She had a lasting influence on my life.

“ Dear Tyson Family,
So sorry to learn of the passing of Laurie. I first met Laurie through Bible Study Fellowship (BSF) back in the 1980's. I learned she was the aunt of my students at Eden Prairie High School where I was a Counselor. In addition to being a fellow educator, Laurie was a beautiful, godly Christian woman. We learned together in BSF as we shared a common faith. I will always treasure her wisdom, her deep study of God's Word and her ability to apply the Word.

To Laurie's family (don't know if you remember me), I wish you comfort and peace as you bid an earthly goodbye to one of God's strongest soldiers. Treasure the happy memories.
