Lawrence had many roles in his life from Farmer, WWII vet, Auto mechanic, masonry and carpentry, husband and father of 6 daughters, once his wife Frances passed away, he stepped into both roles for his family. He was a loving and caring father. He was very proud of all his grandchildren and great grandchildren. He had a great sense of humor and wit about him and a great host. He loved the outdoors gardening, camping, hunting and fishing. Growing up, our Sundays in the summer consisted of a road trip up north, picnics and a stop at Dairy Queen. He enjoyed playing cribbage and watching wrestling. His passion was trapshooting. He has competed in many trapshooting tournaments, winning many trophies. He loved to laugh, and family was very important to him. He will be greatly missed.

“ I loved to go fishing as a child with both my grandparents. Grandpa loved to go on drive a shin deer just so we could've a mill6eyes looki6our way. He was a strong hard working man that took good care of us all. He was patient enough to teach me his game cribbage at my young age of 49... Watching wrestling will never be the same. RIP gramps from Buddha
