“ We visited the church briefly this summer while on vacation. I was a child when (my cousin) Howard and LeAtrice were married. I remember they chose me to be Sara's 1st baby sitter when they lived in the apartment across from the cemetery. LeAtrice was the pick of our family because she was such a strong, young Christian. The adults knew she would influence her family for good (for God). It is very evident that she did exactly that. Howard serving in church leadership positions for many years; and Sara marrying Troy raising two young ladies that also love the Lord. Our condolences to the family and a sentiment that reaches from my heart. "Time goes so fast; Life asks so much; No wonder friends (and family) seem to lose touch. But deep in the heart, alone and unseen, Love continues to grow, forever green." - unknown author - Kind Regards and Prayers, Vicki Bradley (cousin to Howard) were at my wedding and

“ Lee's family; God fill your hearts with peace, The one that passes understanding. I know you are all in shock now and numb. So much we wanted to see Lee healed and I guess she is definatley healed and whole, much more than us. But so deeply missed, I only knew her for a little while and she was such a light, Be blessed little family you will always feel her heart, until you meet again. Love Jane

“ My mother loved so fully. She loved God with her entire being. She loved my father "the most-est", she loved her kids, her son in law, and grandchildren and prayed for all of us every day. She loved her friends deeply. I am so rich because she was not only my mom but my cheerleader, my prayer warrior, my mentor, my example and my friend.

“ LeAtrice Kern was an amazing woman of God and a testimony of His faithfulness to all who knew her. Our heartfelt sympathy at the loss of your dear sweet wife, mother, grandmother and sister during this earthly parting which brings sorrow to the heart that is deeply profound. We enfold you in our prayers and rejoice that she is in glory where there is no pain, no sickness and only God's pure love surrounding her. In God's great mercy He gave your mother relief from the pain and suffering of her cancer and you know that you will meet again. That same grace of our loving Heavenly Father is the strength that will sustain you during this time. My you be blessed and carried by the love and care of those who love and support you. God is with you. "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18 "Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope." 1 Thessalonians 4:13 "Do not fear, for I am with you; Do not anxiously look about you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, surely I will help you, Surely I will uphold you with My righteous right hand." Isaiah 41:10
