“ I am so sorry that my sister and I were not aware of this, the last time I tried to call her she did answer the phone but seemed unable to respond to me. Leatrice was my second oldest cousin, after Woodrow Haugen. My mother Beatrice and Agnes Moen were sisters. Again, so sorry to learn this so late, prayers to her family! An amazing lady with a life so well lived.

the call was made on Feb, 2, her birthday! Originally my Aunt Agnes intended to name her Beatrice after my mom, then she was born on Feb. 2 which is brother Lawrence's birthday, hence Leatrice. Ground Hogs day was a reminder of both birthdays

“ I only had the pleasure of knowing Leatrice in her later years. Although our time to share was short I always enjoyed our talks about food preparation and choices, family, the early days in Fridley, Minnesota and especially her strong feelings and philosophy about what it takes to be a good and trusted person. I will miss her. By the way, every time I think of a pancakes, maple cookies or maple flavored ice cream I will think of Leatrice. God bless. Jeff C.
