“ My thoughts and prayers are with Jan and the boys and their families. Lee was one of the most consciously "alive" people that I have ever known. Now the breathing part of his life is over, and the "new body and the new earth" part in the life to come has begun. He leaves behind a solid example of how to live this present life. Joining many others, my life will be poorer for missing him, yet richer for having known him.

“ Jan and boys,

We were shocked and saddened to learn of Lee's untimely death. We admired Lee's subtle humor and warm friendship over the more than thirty years we knew him. All of our lives are richer though shared memories with the Troglodyt's group.
