“ I had the honor of filling the gaps when family could not be there. My little dog Radar and loved visiting Leo. We especially enjoyed "breaking him out of the assisted living place. We would go for walks by local lakes, sit at the playground and watch the children play. We would generally wrap up our adventures with a stop at Dairy Queen.

Leo was a man who had his routines and did not appreciate if anyone tried to change them.

He loved to talk about his wife and cutting through a neighbors yard to see her when they were young.

During the holidays he could be found at the mall in his Santa best.

He was such a beautiful soul and will be missed dearly by everyone he met

My deepest condolences to his family and friends.
