

Leslie Howard Crowley

May 29, 1934 - March 24, 2023

Leslie Howard Crowley, 88 years old of Minnetonka passed away on March 24, 2023 at his residency, surrounded by his loving family.

Preceded in death by parents, Howard & Gladys; brother, William; son, Essie; brothers-in-law, John Meath and Tom Plehal.

Survived by wife, Darlene; son, Anthony; granddaughter, Avyana; son, Jonathan; brother, Eddie (Cheryl); sisters, Dottie and Patti; sister-in-law, Glenna.

Les served in the US Air Force and in the Korean War. Upon his return from his tour, he married Darlene and the two lived happily for 66 years. He worked for his uncle for 58 years in the well drilling business. He had a work ethic to be admired. He loved his yard work and building around his property. When his granddaughter was born, he found a new love and passion. He spent his later years doting on her and showering her with love. Les was a wonderful Husband, Father, Friend, Brother and Grandpa. He is gone in body, but forever will live in our hearts and memories. Love you Dad.

Memorials preferred to be used for a bench and oak tree to be placed in his honor in Purgatory Park near his home.

Special thanks to Living Life Homecare, Park Nicollet Hospice: Emily, Sarah and all those who cared for him to ensure his comfort.

Services at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church (13505 Excelsior Blvd, Minnetonka) on Tuesday, April 4, visitation 10 AM and service at 11 AM. Luncheon to follow.

Private interment with military honors at a future date.
