“ Words cannot adequately express the Unique Beauty and Spirit of Leslie in her sweet and quiet way. I think anyone who ever crossed Leslie's path was a lucky person.

The amount of Mitzvah (good deeds) that Leslie did are immeasurable combined with the fact that Leslie did these things not because she was obligated to do so but because she could do so, and do it SO WELL.

The love and pride she felt for her husband Paul and their children Nate, Marlee, Rachel and Issac is unparalleled. I hope they feel the love and support from all who knew and loved their Wife and Mother.

We may ask ourselves "Why Leslie, this Shining Light of our Community"?

And there is no answer except to say to ourselves " Be like Leslie, be Kind, be Loving, be Accepting, Be Strong.

May Leslie be a Light for us All.

Xoxo

“ I was so very sorry to hear of your loss. As a Gan Shelanu teacher I knew Leslie for many years, both as a parent and a volunteer. I had the privilege of teaching Nate, Marlee and Rachael and knowing Jacob as well. It was so much fun having Rachael as an after school helper! Leslie was the best mom and I could tell how much she adored her children. She was just the best and the world will be less bright without her.

I hope your precious memories bring you some comfort at this difficult time.
