“ Our family has so many great memories of our times with Les and the Lindgren family. Many years of camping, partying, our meetings after the church meetings. Les was a great friend, always so gracious and kind, funny and just good to be around. Our hearts are filled with love for you Marie and family.

“ Les will be missed very much. I really enjoyed being with Les when we were both at St Matthew Lutheran Church. Les and Marie were special people to my wife and me. even after we moved to Omaha. I pray for Marie, Richard, George, and Matthew that you will all find the strength and love of Jesus even in difficult times.

Marie, thinking of you today. I sent Matt a long letter, recalling how I was in Denmark when my dad suffered his heart attack/stroke and subsequently died. You and Les were inseparable. He was adorable, like the mayor of St Matt's. Sending love and prayers your way today.
