“ Leslie dear, You are now in the loving arms of our Savior Lord Jesus. May you feel His comfort, peace, and happiness without pain & MSA. You were always a spark of love and energy, with tons of warm smiles. You spread your Faith with grace among so many people in spite of your disease. You always have been a dear personal friend and Alpha Nu friend . You touched so many lives with your dedication to teaching and guiding your students. The parents and community acknowledged your professionalism and friendship. You are missed. I keep you in prayer and will love you forever. I am saddened I didn't have the opportunity to visit you while you were at Eagle Crest or Waverly Gardens. I keep you in my dearest memories. You will not be forgotten. I love you, Leslie, Darlene Cuddigan
