

Lillian Hughlett

August 30, 2013

Hughlett, Lillian 105, died August 30th after a long and happy life. She was born on a small farm in Almena, Wis, to Finnish immigrants and moved to Minneapolis at a young age, working the first of several jobs in the kitchen of a downtown hotel. She met her husband Harold Hughlett at a dance in north Minneapolis. They raised a family on the North Side, moving to Robbinsdale in their senior years. Lillian lived in her own house until she was 95, tending her flowers with gusto. And she never forgot her trip to Finland in the 1960s to visit her parents' hometown. She is survived by daughters, Joyce Kunze and Vivian (Don) Meyers; son, Roger (Mary Anne) Hughlett; sisters, Elsie Houston and Pearl Ruff; 9 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband, Harold; granddaughter Cindy Meyers; three sisters; two brothers; and son-in-law, Jerry Kunze. Lillian's (Lilly) family is especially thankful for the loving care she received from the staff and owners of Solbakken homes in Maple Grove.
