

Lilly Schwarzkopf

March 23, 2011

Schwarzkopf, Lilly C. 101, of Bloomington, went peacefully to her heavenly home on Sunday, March 20, 2011. The oldest of five siblings, she was born of Swedish immigrants. Preceded in death by her husband, Clarence; brothers, William and Bernard Youngquist; and sisters, Gladys Reineck and Hildur Perron. Lilly was born and raised in Mpls, she spent most of her life in Edina except for ten years in Arizona. She was a twenty year resident of Friendship Village, Bloomington and a longtime member of Colonial Church. Lilly touched everyone with her cheerfulness, laughter and compassion. She was a devoted friend and loving wife, sister and aunt. Her kind and gracious spirit was a gift to all. She will be deeply missed by her nieces, nephews, extended family, friends and all who knew her. Special thanks to Methodist Hospital Hospice Caregivers and all the staff at Friendship Village for their kindness and compassion extended to Lilly over the years. Private interment Lakewood Cemetery, Mpls. Memorials preferred in lieu of flowers. Memorial Service Friday, March 25, at 11 AM at Friendship Village, 8100 Highwood Dr, Bloomington.
