

Linda D. Gaetke

January 14, 2016

Gaetke, Linda D. 69, of Cedar, MN, passed away peacefully at home Jan. 14, 2016 after a lengthy battle with Lewy Body Disease surrounded by family. Born in Holyoke, MA, she spent most of her life in Massachusetts before moving to Minnesota in 1982. Linda was an avid sportsman enjoying deer hunting and fishing. She enjoyed traveling to fish and had many wonderful stories to share through the years. She worked in Quality Control most of her working career in CT, MA and MN until she retired. She was predeceased by her parents, Richard and Dorothy (Redfern) Powers, a sister, Judith C. Powers, and her husband, Robert D. Gaetke. She is survived by her sisters, Nancy A. McCarthy of Newaygo, MI, Deonna L. Powers of Cedar, MN and Kathy L. Hilton of Rochester, NH a stepson, Erik R. Gaetke and granddaughter, Lena D. Gaetke of Jacksonville, FL; several nieces and nephews and several grand nieces and nephews. The family would like to thank Allina Health and Hospice Care for your love, compassion and care of our sister during this time. The family will have her burial as well as her Celebration of Life at a later date.
