

Linda Ernestine Ingold

May 8, 1944 - May 10, 2025

In Loving Memory of Linda E. Ingold

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Linda E. Ingold, a devoted mother, grandmother, cherished sister, and treasured friend. Linda's kindness knew no bounds. She was a giving soul who was always there when you needed her, offering warmth, support, and an unwavering presence in the lives of those she loved.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and compassion, carried on by her children, Ulana (grandson Tate), Ajorette, and Marshall. She is also survived by her beloved siblings, Rosemary, Leo, Theresa, and Lana and many nieces and nephews.

Linda's gentle spirit and generous heart touched everyone she met. Her memory will live on in the kindness she shared and the countless moments of love and laughter.

She will be deeply missed, forever loved and never forgotten.

Tribute Wall

AB

“ We will definitely miss you Auntie Linda and you've been truly loved by others and God's Graciously be upon you ... We miss your beautiful card that you send and I just about to send her mother's Day card ...

---

Angelina Brill - May 25, 2025 at 03:13 PM