“ My favorite memories of my aunt Linda are when I was a little girl I was in my aunt Nancy's wedding and aunt Linda brought me into her room curled my hair and put a little make up on me. She told me I looked so pretty! Then when I came to say good-bye to grandma it was hard for me and I cried hard. Aunt Linda took me away from everyone else and hugged me and said everything would be ok. Rest easy Linda, and give grandma, grandpa and my mama hugs for me.

“ I remember always looking up to Linda. She was 4 years older than me and my twin. We would visit the Lemke home and I always hoped that Linda would be home! She was always busy attending sports events. I will always remember how meticulous she was. Their home sparkled 💖 Linda I am looking up at you now. May our Lord bless you 🙏
