“ We met at the hockey rink. She was Joeys biggest fan! Linda was outgoing, talkative and fun! She enjoyed life. Anytime I ever talked with her she was always joyful. She talked about her kids then her grandkids. Her family meant everything to her. I never saw her sad or down , she was always happy and friendly. Linda was a unique and charming woman with a giving heart. She will be remembered for her sunny attitude and her bright smile and laugh. Cherish your memories of your wife and mom. She loved you so much

“ Linny will always have a very special place in my heart. I loved our phone chats. I have special memories of her baking with me when I was little. She always had the best snacks, best hair, best nails and purses. Our families went on family trips. I will never forget Yogi Bear Park, or Ogi Bear as Ang called it. All of the hockey games. Camping out and saving spots at Eagles Point for the 4th and Baga weekends and the many weekends at Granite Lake. So many good memories. She kept us all laughing with her wicked sense of humor and sharp tongue. She was as loyal as they come and loved with every ounce of being. She was also a great friend and sister-in-law to my mother. She really misses you Linny. I am going to miss you Linny, but I know we have the fiercest, relentless, kind hearted guardian angel looking over us. RIP Linny. You fought so hard to stay with your loved ones. You will be so missed. Love you Linny, Shelly

“ Linny was a great sister, mother, grandmother and friend. She always called me "sissy ". She was funny, loved to swear( I don't know if she loved it but she did swear a lot 😊 ) and she was stubborn, like fighting her battle with cancer till she had no more fight in her. She loved animals and children. She took care of my 2 year old granddaughter Lucy ( she called her LuLu) whenever they asked her to and she loved LuLu to come over. She always had new things to play with for her. Lucy loved going to Linnys! I'm going to cherish all the years and memories I had with Linny. Rest In Peace now , I love you and will miss you forever
Your sissy( Cathy) 😭❤️🙏

“ Linda was a very special person to me, she was always there for me, we had a very close bond these last few years. I miss her terribly! She is at peace now, I'll always be here for my brother and his children, she loved them dearly. Linda, see if you and your mom and my mom can find a bingo place in heaven, and say hi to all in heaven with you. LOVE YOU and miss you, Marianne, meme2
